MISS MARGARET F. PATTON WEDS COLONEL T. A. JONES

Ceremony Takes Place at Home of Bride's Mother in

Lexington. MANY PEOPLE LEAVING TOWN

House Parties at Beach and in Country Prove Attractive Summer Affairs - Broomall-Elkins Wedding Takes Place in Philadelphia.

Society in Richmond and throughout the State is deeply interested in the marriage of Miss Margaret French l'atton, daughter of the late Colonel l'atton, of Blacksburg, to Colonel T. A. Jones, professor of mathematics at the Virginia Military Institute. Virginia Military Institute. The wed-ding was quietly celebrated last even-ing at the home of the bride's mother in Lexington. Both bride and groom are widely related and Mrs. Jones has frequently visited relatives in Rich-

Miss Elizabeth Preston, of West Franklin Street, left several days ago for Lexington, to attend the Jones-Patton marriage.

Leave for Orange. Mrs. A. Langstaff Johnston and her daughters, Misses Mary and Lulie Johnston, of 505 West Franklin Street, have closed their town house and left yesterday for "Berry Hill," the home of Mrs. John G. Williams, near Orange, where they will spend some time. They will not return to Richmond un-til early in September.

of Interest Here.

A scheme of pink, carried out with sweetness and roses, was the distinguishing feature at the wedding of the ball ways Filips and De Lieu Miss Doris Wayne Elkins and Dr. Harold Shoemaker Broomall, of Chester, Pa, the ceremony for which was con-ducted in the Church of St Martins-in-the-Fields, St. Martins, Philadel-phia, last Wednesday evening by Rev. Charles Atwater, of Baltimore, assisted by Rev. Jacob Le Roy, rector of the The chancel was a mass of bloom with clusters of roses and sweetpens mingled with snapdragons, while palms and cybodium were placed at either side and at the back of the chan-

The bride, who is the daughter of and Mrs. Harvey Lincoln Elkins, ande attended only by her sister, Miss. Mrs. Ethel Chapman Elkins, as maid of honor. Her father gave her in mar-

Dr. Broomall had Ensign Edward Lull Cochrane, U. S. N. as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Terrill Price, Roland Ullman, Robert Driver, Hughes and Frederick Chapman Elka brother of the bride.

The latter was attired in a soft white crepe de chine, corded and trimmed with ruffles of chiffon and carls. Her long veil, falling from a luster of orange blossoms, formed her train, while a short veil over the face was used before the ceremony. Sho nd with a short, full skirt. Her large at was of pink chiffon, trimmed with pink rose. On her arm sh basket of roses and swee arried a basket of roses and sweetle, while the ribbon, combined chiffon, formed streamers, the close of the ceremony the nilies and a few intimate friends al-ded a reception at Goodsight, Saint The house was beautifully with roses, sweetpeas and Out-of-town guests include: John Murray Priest, of Richmond, Miss Alice Mallor, of Rappahan-both cousins of the bride and Mrs. Broomall will make

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cressor Given left home in Newport News, after a visit to relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cressor Given left home in Newport News, after a visit to relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Pope, the latter formerly Miss. Rosa Smith, of Richmond, have taken a cottage at Virginia Beach for the season.

Mrs. Malvern Newcomb, of Baltimore, who has been visiting in this city, has mond.

Some of the Richmond people who have left town recently for the Alleghany Inn at Goshen are Mrs. Edmand T. Crump, E. T. Crump, W. G. Moseley, Mrs. Moseley and Miss Maria Moseley, Mrs. E. L. Mayo, Miss Sue K. Gorden, Mrs. D. D. Talley, Mrs. B. Pollard Cardoza and others.

In Fredericksburg.

David Payne has returned to the city, after spending several days at Virginia Beach.

Miss Elizabeth Brockenbrough and Miss Mildred Williams, of this city, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Shirley Carter, in Norfolk.

Mrs. John G. White has returned to spring something akin to a sensation next week, when he will present the lothian, will leave Richmond on Sat-urday for a trip West, including the exposition. They expect to return about September 1.

urday for a trip West, including the exposition. They expect to return about September 1.

Virginia Brach Arrivals.

Among the recent arrivals at the Porter Cottage, Virginia Beach, are Mrs. V. F. Dickinson, Richmond; Mrs. Franklin Stearns, Fredericksburg; Mrs. E. W. Moore and Miss Elizabeth Moore, Richmond; Jack Dillard, Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Whitehead and children, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. J. Homer Smith, Washington; S. H. McLachlin and P. M. Duncan, Newport News; Miss Rosa Trant, G. A. Peple and W. W. Dillard, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Brittingham and sons, Portsmouth; Miss Edna Bethel and Miss Jessie Frayser, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Buxton, Richmond; Mrs. W. J. Rahily, Willie Rahily, Mrs. Ragan and son, Petersburg, and S. R. Adams, Norfolk, Marriage Announced.

Cards have been received in Richmond announcing the marriage of Miss.

Cards have been received in Richmond

groom in this city.

To Travel in the West.

Miss Ellen B. Harvie leaves shortly for an extended Western trip, including California, the Yosemite and Canadian Rockies. She will be joined in Huntington, W. Va., by Mrs. W. C. M. Renshaw, Miss Harvie will visit Miss Elizabeth T. White in St. Louis en route.

Methoust ...

Was given away by her friend, ...

Cummock—Wilkinson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., July S.—Miss Lucye Meadows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Wilkinson, of Altavista, was married on Wednesday morning to C. N. Cummock at the home of the bride.

The Hygeia Cottage at Cape Henry has been filled for the past month with parties from Richmond, Petersburg and other places in Virginia, as well as from several Northern cities. Those

N. Cummock at the home of the bride. Rev. A. M. Padgett, pastor of First Baptist Church, was the celebrant. They will live at Altavista.

Thompson—Jones. as from several Northern cities. Those registered there for the Fourth and for this week include: Mrs. Robert C. Glimore and children, Fredericksburg; Joseph O. Thompson, of Catletts, Va.,

SKETCH FROM LIFE -: By Temple

"Advanced Sales"

McK. Baldwin, Alexandria; Miss and Miss Ruth Wilson Jones, daugh-rances D. Jones, Philadelphia; Miss ter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Jones, of Mor-essie Venable. Petersburg; Mrs. J. risville, Fauquier County, were mar-orden Rennie and children, Peters- ried at the home of the bride, Rev. A. Bessie Venable, Petersburg; Mrs. J. Fordon Rennie and children, Peters-burg; Mrs. J. W. West, Lynchburg; Mrs. D. C. Frost, Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. William P. Redd and children, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander and children, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Alman Hart, Miss Nancy Hart, Miss Matilda Hart, Tarbero, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myers and children,

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Mrs. George Street, Jr., and her small daughter are spending some time at Longport, N. J.

Leonard F. Pierson and Count d'Adhemar have been recent guests of the Misses Robb at "Gaymont," in Caro-line County.

train, while a short veil over the face was used before the ceremony. Sho carried a bouquet of snapdragons and Vaden, in Chesterfield County.

Joseph Gwathmey has returned to his home, after a short visit to relatives in this city. Miss Margaret Mehegan, of Richmond, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Jones, in Norfolk. Mrs. Hell and her sister, Miss Mary Woodbridge, left town Tuesday for Saiuda, N. C., where they will spend Miss Olive Theresa Dempsey is spending the month of July in the White Mountains and New York.

Miss Margaret Newell, who has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Livezey, in Newport News, has returned to her

Rev. H. Jones, of South Carolina, who has been in Richmond and Ches-terfield for some time past, left last vening for the mountains of North

Mrs. John G. White has returned to burg, who was operated on recently at the Johnston-Willis Hospital here, is now improving.

Cards have been received in Richmond announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Bradley Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas Hubbard, of Roxbury, and Robert Ashby Ladd, the ceremony having taken place on Wednesday, June 23, in Washington. The announcement is of much interest to relatives and friends of both bride and groom in this city.

To Travel in the West.

Miss Ellen B. Harvie leaves shortly

J. Cummings performing the ceremony.

The bride and groom left for an extended bridal trip by automobile tended bridal trip by auto through the Valley of Virginia.

Saunders-Saunders. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 8.—William
A. Saunders and Miss Edith Mary Saunders, both of Lynchburg, were married on Wednesday night at the parsonage of College Hill Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. A. Ayers, officiating.

AMUSEMENTS

Unusually Good Bill at Lyric.
With one exception, all the acts on the Lyric's program for the latter half the Lyric's program for the latter half of the week are both meritorious, professionally, and pleasing, popularly. The opening turn doesn't amount to much, but then it doesn't last long either, and the other acts combine to make the bill unusually good.

Mack and Sangster, two little girls who are much too young in appearance and movement to be stunted women, are nevertheless professional entertainers, who understand what they are doing. One is an ingenue, who sings sentimental songs; the other a soubrette of sorts. This brat of soubrette is a little bit of a brunette, plump little brunette at that, and a born musical comedy starlet, who will be a star one of these days—that is, if there is such a thing as a stage oft when she grows up.

John B. Hymer, whose sketches have ot been marked by conspicuous novelty heretofore, offers a real novelty in the skit, "Twice a Week." It is novel for several reasons; in the first evening for the mountains of North Carolina.

Mrs. Glassell, wife of Dr. Glassell, of owling Green, Caroline County, who is been quite ill at St. Luke's Hospilin this city, is now slowly improvate Miss Frances Glassell, who came in Richmond to be with her mother, is slting Mrs. Robert B. Todd, of 203 orth Lombardy Street, for some time.

Garland Brooks has returned to his city, is dialogue, "Twice a Week" would be even more notably than now one sketch in a thousand.

Garland Brooks has returned to his Ray Conlin. programmed as "the ment of her uncle for two weeks.

Mrs. Malvern Newcomb, of Baltimore, who has been visiting in this city, has left for her father's home in Gloucestor County. Mrs. Newcomb was guest of honor at a number of charming enterialments during her stay in Richmond.

Some of the District of the season.

Mrs. James E. Cannon, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. W. I. Jordan, at her home in South Boston.

Miss Earle Baker, of Richmond, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Graves in Fredericksburg.

And, barring several inexcusably raw specimens of soiled comedy, Bert Lamont's Cowboy Minstrels proffer one of the best acts of its kind ever seen in the house. The act is well produced, both as to setting and costume, and the six men of the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony that would be even prettier if the falsette kent under the company produced harmony the company pr

To Tour West.

Miss Carrie Neison Berkeley has returned to her home in Richmond, after spending the week-end at "Laurel Grove," the country home of State Sentator J. B. Watkins, near Midlothian.

A party of young people, including Misses Wilsie Thornton, Mattie Thornton, Kate Franklin Farling, of Pamplins, and Miss Roche Watkins, of Midlothian, will leave Richmond on Saturday.

Mrs. John G. White has returned to Fredericksburg, after a brief stay in this city.

Messrs. William and Edward Peyton, and satirleal comedy-drama created a great stir a few years ago, when it was presented simultaneously by two producing managers, David Belasco and Henry W. Savage, it has been burg, who was operated on recently at the Johnston-Willis Hospital here, is it on is a pretty large order for a sensation mext week, when he will present the much-talked-of play, "The Devil," by Franz Molnar. Although this subtle and satirleal comedy-drama created a great stir a few years ago, when it was presented simultaneously by two producing managers, David Belasco and Henry W. Savage, it has been seen in Richmond only twice—a matinee and a light performance. Putting nee and a night performance. Putting it on is a pretty large order for a stock company, but Mr. Berthelet had the experience—invaluable in this instance—of playing in Mr. Savage's company that presented it on the road for an entire season, and may, therefore, be expected to stage it according to the traditions—if a play comparatively so young may be said to have traditions. Miss Ball was also in that company—hence, with applopies that company-hence, with apologies

Safe Milk Infants and Invalids

HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

The Food-Drink for all Ages Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.

More healthful than tea or coffee.

Unless you say "HORLIOK'S" you may get a substitute.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.S

RICHMOND LUMBER CO., Inc Fou th, between Decatur and Stockton, Special Mixed Tea for iced SASH, BLINDS, DOORS, FRAMES.

"The Dictator" at Little Theater.
Photographed amid scenes of unusual interest in Cuba and Central America, "The Dictator," the Paramount feature picture at the Little Theater for the latter part of the week, proved vesterday to be one of the most proved yesterday to be one of the mos striking photopiays released by that uniformly excellent service. In the principal role John Barrymore gives a capital performance, and he is assisted by a thoroughly capable company in making Richard Harding Davis's story a most effective film production, aside from the beauty of its natural settings.

"The Millionaire Baby" at Colonial. For to-day and to-morrow the Colonial's feature photoplay will be "The Millionaire Baby," a picturization of Anna Katherine Green's well-known story. Mystery, intrigue and adventure abound in the plot, which is constructed around a theme vaguely suggestive school, was devoted for the most part to discussions of religious topics.

The speakers at the morning session were W. E. Garnett, director of the Albemarie County Survey, who told of the religious lessons gleaned from a county survey; Rev. R. A. Lapsley, D. D., representing the Virginia Department of Agriculture, who spoke of country churches as social centers, and Dr. Charles Alphonse Smith, of the Uni-Dr. Charles Alphonse Smith, of the University, whose topic was "Literary Study of New Testament."

Study of New Testament."

In the afternoon, Guy L. Carter, Sunday school secretary of the Virginia Christian Missionary Society, told of the one-room country Sunday school, and Professor Max Margolis, of Dropsic College, Philadelphia, gave his third lecture on "Social Messages of the Prophets"

SUES CITY FOR $800

Trial was begun in the Law and Equity Court yesterday of the case of L. K. Black & Co., against the city of Richmond. The company is engaged in the contracting business, and sues for $800 which it claims is due it from the city for paying work. the city for paving work in Ginter

The paving in question was contract ed for by the town council of Ginter Park before annexation. With annexation the city of Richmond assumed the contract. Payment has been held up on the ground, as the city claims, up on the ground, as the city claims, that the work done by the contractor

Duke to Make Address.
D. Duke, assistant to President
White, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, will deliver an address before the Baraca Philathea classes at their monthly meeting to be held to-night at 8 o'clock at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church, corner of Park Avenue and Harrison Street. The classes of this church have prepared an attractive program for the occasion, and refreshments will be served. All young peo ple are cordially invited.

Skin Purity and Beauty

Soap when used daily and Cuticura Ointment used occasionally.

Samples Free by Mail Culleurs Soap and Ointment sold everywhere.
Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book.
Address post-card "Cutleurs," Dept. 24F, Boston.

Drinks That Cool! ULLMAN'S SON

1820-22 East Main Street. 506 East Marshall Street. Armour's Grape Juice:

qts., 38c.; pts., 20c.; family cases, 6 pts.....$1.10 Delatour's Ginger Ale and Sarsaparilla, per doz ... $1.00 Lemons for lemonade, per tea, per lb...... 40c

for the liberty, Mr. and Mrs. Berthelet. | NAMES DELEGATES TQ CRIMINAL LAW CONFERENCE

Commonwealth's Attorneys and Perso Interested in Criminology and Social Reform Selected.

Governor Stuart has directed the is dance of commissions to 120 Common-calth's Attorneys, criminal lawyers and persons interested in criminology and social-reform work in Virginia appointed by him to represent this State at the seventh annual convention of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, which is to be held in Sait Lake City, Utah, August 18.

Secretary of the Commonwealth B.
O. James will send commissions to the following among the sends.

"Three Weeks" at Isls.

It is rumoned that a specially constructed aspectors screen has been provided for the opening of the Isls, the reconstructed Regent, next door to the Bijou. Why aspectors? 'Cause the picture for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will tell no less torridated than Elinor Glyn's tempestuous Three Weeks.' For the last two days of the week the screen will calm down of the week the screen has been provided for the Opening of the Isls, the Rustburg; W. E. Ennis, Rowling Green; S. Floyd Landreth, Galax: L. M. Nance. Roxbury: Thomas E. Watkins, Charbour, Thomas E. Watki a tale than Elinor Giyn's active days of the week the screen will calm down to "Beulah," adapted from Augusta J. Evans's novel, in which Henry Walthall, one of the principal actors in the great picture, "The Birth of a Nation," is featured—not as Beulah, however.

featured—not as Beulah, however.

Montague, Hampton, Samble Hampton, Samble Ford, Fair-fax: George Latham Fletcher, War-fax: George TO RELIGIOUS TOPICS dependence; R. S. Thomas, Stan-

TO RELIGIOUS TOPICS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., July S.—
The third day of the Rural Life Conference, now being held in connection with the University of Virginia summer school, was devoted for the most part to discussions of religious topics.

The speakers at the morning session were W. E. Garnett, director of the Albermarle County Survey, who told of the religious lessons gleaned from a C. Bibb, Louisa: N. S. Tarnbull, Jr., C. Bibb, Louisa; N. S. Turnbull, Jr., Victoria; N. G. Payne, Madison; R. L. McCready, Mathews; C. T. Baskervill, Boydton; William Dunbar Evans, Sa-luda; R. I. Roop, Christiansburg; S. E.

Thalhimer Brothers

Clearance Sale of Children's and Misses' Linen Dresses

Sizes 6 to 16 Years.

Several models to select from, suitable to each individual age; some are hand-embroidered. Made in solid colors and combination colors; styles in high, regular and long waist effects; some bolero models in the lot; sold for $2.50 to $3.50; choice,

Children's and Misses' Dresses

in French ginghams and chambrays; sizes 6 to 16 vears: the $1.25 to $2.00 ones for 98c.

"SERVICE" FLORAL DECORATIONS Think what floral artists can do when they have the resources of 240,000 feet of greenhouses at their command! May we quote prices? Just phone Madison 630.

Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness.

HAMMOND The South's Great Florist 109 E.Broad -----

Buy Trunks and Leather Goods

Trunk and Leather Goods Store.

> Buy Baggage from factory to you.

Sold with a seven-year guarantee.

313 East Broad Street.

Everett, Suffolk; S. B. Whitehead, Lovingston; Manly H. Barnes, Providence Forge; A. B. Carney, Norfolk; J. E. Nettingham, Jr., Franktown; C. S. Towles, Reedville; R. E. Lee, Crewe; A. T. Browning, Orange; W. F. Keyser, Luray; R. E. Woolwine, Stuart; H. Dillard, Chatham; M. P. Bonifant, Powhetten A. D. Watking, Farmyille, The hatan, A. D. Watkins, Farmville; Tim-othy Rives, R. F. D. No. 2, Petersburg A. J. Ackiss, Virginth Beach; Thomas H. Lion, Manussas; F. W. Morton, Pu-laski; H. G. Moffett, Washington; R. W. Kime, Salem; David E. Moore, Lexing on; C. D. Harrison, Harrisonburg; H. Routh, Lebanon; J. F. Sergent, Gate ity; Philip Williams, Woodstock; Geo.

P. Cook, Marion; E. Frank Story, Courtland; Robert E. Waller, Partlow; G. B. Wallace, Fredericksburg; W. L. Devany, For to-day and to-morrow the Colonial's feature photoplay will be "The Millionaire Baby," a picturization of Anna Katherine Green's well-known story. Mystery, intrigue and adventure abound in the plot, which is constructed around a theme vaguely suggestive of "Baby Mine," in that a wife deceives her husband into believing that a borrowed baby is her own. "The Millionaire Baby," however, is not in the least farcical, but partakes of the mature of what is commonly known as a detective story. Harry Mestayer, Grace Darmond and Charlotte Stevens are conspicuous in the cast.

"Three Weeks" at Isls.

It is rumored that a specially constitution of the following appointees to-day:

O. James will send commissions to the following appointees to-day:

Joseph C. Wysor, Pulaski; John L. Lee, Lynchburg, H. M. Smith, Jr., and L. O. Wendenburg, Richmond; John S. Low, Harman, Tazewell; W. H. Turner, Eront Royal: Philip St. George Willox, Denbigh, John W. Neal, Abingdon; C. Conway Baker, Montross; W. W. G. Charlottesville; Crandal Mackey, Rossily, "William E. Allen, Covington: T. R. Kert, Staunton; H. H. Byrd, Warm Springs; Landon Lowry, Belford City, A. R. Porterfield, Bland; F. G. Woodson, Fincaste E. P. Buford, Lawrence-ville; R. E. Williams, Grundy; E. W. Hubard, Buckingham; A. H. Light, Rustburg, W. E. Ennis, Bowling Green; T. Bland, Portsmouth; H. C. Tyler, East Radford, Minitgee, Fredericksburg; W. L. Devany, Mallage, Pretlow; G. B. Wallace, Fredericksburg; W. L. Devany, Jr., Dandron, William B. Cocke, Booke, Booke port News: O. L. Shackelford, Norfolk, port News: O. L. Shackelford, Norfolk, S. W. Zimmer, Jr., Petersburg; Charles T. Bland, Portsmouth; H. C. Tyler, East Radford; Minitree Folkes, Richmond, Eyerett Perkins, Roanoke; Carter Braxton, Staunton; W. P. Lipscomb, Suffolk, and James P. Reardon, Winchester.

> Richmond Trust Elects Dean Maury. Dean Maury, for more than twent years connected with the National State and City Bank, most recently in the capacity of auditor, has been elected by the Richmond Trust and Savings Company to its newly-created office of trust officer and assistant secretary. It is understood that Mr. Maury will sume his new duties about August 1.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

The Season's Smart White Shoes

With the new stocks just re-ceived, you couldn't help but find just the shoe that is most becoming to your foot—and most pleasing to your eye. The very last word in styles— the lowest prices and largest varieties. Let the Dabney experts fit

$2.50, $3 and $4

We Have Moved

25 West Broad St.

Hopkins Furniture Co.

Bracelet Watches

Are so useful and convenient that every girl wants one. Why not get what she wants? We have a beautiful line of watches of every description. Call and see them. They are

"The Diamond Merchant."

Office Furniture of Quality and Distinction

It gives service and satisfac-

Phone our representative and

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, Incorporated

Wear Hosiery To Match

The Kaufmann Store

 $\mathbf{Y}^{ ext{OUR}}$ silk sweater. The colors offered to satisfy the sweater craze are so delicate, so varied and withal so pleasing that the inclination to have hosiery match is easy to understand. Here are three little specials offered to fill this very want.

Boot Silk Hose, with reinforced heel and toe, lisle garter top, in all colors— Nell rose, Copen, emerald, purple, melon and pink; to-day, 35c.

The new striped Hose, in the "Niagara Maid" brand; glove silk; as well suited for bathing as for street wear-$1.50. Pure Silk Hose, in all the best makes to correspond or blend with the ilk sweater-$1.00. "A Certain Satisfaction" attends your shopping here.

STATIONS STATES Over 5,000 Alaska Refrigerators

It costs money to be without an Alaska.

Cheaper to buy now than

Over 60 different styles now

JURGENS

Adams & D. To-Day It's

> Comfort Porch Chairs Rosenbloom & Son

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL

Just what he wanted

Let him eat his fill of Washington CRISPS, the dainty toasted CORN FLAKES with the natural corn flavor. Easily digested and very nourish-

A bowl of CRISPS with milk is by far the best food you can give your little ones at this season of the year.

Washington CRISPS
The Crispy Toasted Cora Flakes

10 cents at your grocer's married and a second second second second